School Background

Centennial Middle School was built in 1996, Utah's Centennial Year.

Centennial Middle School is a standard-based, high stakes school for the 2006-2007 school year.

Centennial offers services in counseling, psychology, speech and special needs.

Centennial Middle School operates under a closed campus policy. Students are expected to stay on campus from the time they arrive, until dismissal. Students can only be checked out of the school by parent or legal guardian.

School Staff

The Centennial staff reflects a broad range of training, academic preparation and post-graduate study.

Enrollment

1000 Students from Canyon Crest, Edgemont, Provost, Rock Canyon, Farrer, Wasatch, and Spring Creek elementary schools.

Class Size

27:1

Curriculum

Centennial offers the standard core curriculum as well as a wide range of elective courses as well as co-curricular enrichment activities.

Parents are encouraged to monitor their student's performance by using the PowerSchool link shown above.

Computers & Technology

Centennial has two PC's labs for technology classes as well as Writing/Research Lab.

Extracurricular Programs

Word Power Challenge
Geography Bee
Knowledge Bowl
Spelling Bee
School Play
National Jr. Honor Society

Student Promotion

High Stakes Standards dictates that students who are proficient in the 8th grade will be promoted to their traditional feeder high school. Students who are not proficient in the 8th grade, will, on a case-by-case basis, be scheduled for coursework to insure proficiency. In general these students will be referred to Independence High School for remediation.

Special Needs Students

Centennial offers services in counseling, psychology, speech and special needs. Contact the school for further information. Individual students needing special accommodations should notify Mr. Swenson.

School Fees

School fees will be assessed in compliance with District fee schedules and will vary based on individual needs and enrollment.

Questions

Please contact the office at 370-4621.

Success

Centennial has had success in helping students transition from the elementary to the high school experience. The Wolf Pack (homeroom) is a place where students develop relationships with a close peer group and a significant adult advocate. Wolf Packs average twenty-one students for each adult mentor.

Challenges

Centennial works to meet the needs of academically and ethnically diverse student population.

Parent & Community

Centennial Parents are active in supporting teachers and curriculum. Last year they offered approximately 1000 volunteer hours. The PTA is fully functioning and meets weekly to support Centennial academic and social programs.

Visitors

Please check in at the office prior to contacting students or faculty.

Parents and other adults visiting the school are welcome. We invite them to report directly to the Main Office. We will provide a visitor's pass and assistance.

Provo School District Policy stipulates that no student visitors be allowed on campus during and after school hours.
